

Summerhill School Policy for Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance 2023-2024

Introduction

A young person's career is their pathway through learning and work. All young people need a planned programme of activities to help them make 14-19 choices which are right for them and to enable them to have the necessary skills to be able to manage their careers throughout their lives. Schools and colleges have a statutory duty to provide careers education in Years 7-13 and to give students access to high quality careers information, advice and guidance. The policy is developed and reviewed annually. It is based on current good practice from the Careers Development Institute and is guided by the 'Gatsby' benchmarks, to ensure best practice and to conform to statutory requirements aptly demonstrated by our school motto 'Success through caring'.

Aims and Commitment of CEIAG

Summerhill School is committed to providing a planned programme of careers education for all students in Years 7-11 and information, advice and guidance in partnership with the local Connexions Service and external providers/professionals.

Summerhill School endeavours to follow the National Careers Strategy for CEIAG (December 2017), Quality Standards for Young People's IAG and current good practice guidelines DCSF IAG Strategy, DCSF Principles of Impartial Careers Education and other relevant guidance from QCA and OFSTED.

At Summerhill School our careers' mission statement aims for all students to:-

- Have had at least three opportunity for employer engagement per academic year (Year 7 – 11)

Objectives of CEIAG

The careers programme is designed to meet the needs of all students at Summerhill School. It is differentiated and personalised to ensure the progression through activities which are appropriate to students' stages of career learning, planning and development.

Students are entitled to careers education, information, advice and guidance which meets professional standards of practice and is person-centred, impartial and confidential. It will be integrated into students' experience of the whole curriculum and be based on a partnership with teachers, students and their parents or carers. The programme will promote equality of opportunity, inclusion and anti-racism; it will comply with the disability and discrimination acts, celebrate diversity and challenge stereotypes.
